What I enjoyed most...	Enjoyed 2nd most...	Enjoyed 3rd most...	Will use knowledge gained to...
Take away handouts	Knowledgeable Guide	Brewery Tour	I'm in the process of purchasing property on the beltline to live in, so I used this tour to get informed on the city plans for the southeast and westside trails.
Seeing where the beltline ran through neighborhoods	Hearing history and potential for neighborhoods	Not having to drive	Will be helpful for potential investment properties and added knowledge to share with clients interested in these areas of town
Getting familiar with the various neighborhoods	The "inside" information on the different potential re-developments	The history and future direction of the beltline	Make a possible investment in property along the beltline
Hearing info about the neighborhoods	The handout sheets with maps & pics	Visiting Mon. Night Brewing for first time	Learned more about west & Southside, especially Murphy's triangle area potential
Seeing and learning about the neighborhoods along the Beltline and their investment opportunities.	History	Beer!	I'm working with an investor interested in new opportunities.
Learning about the Westside trail expansion/opening	Seeing residential, commercial and industrial real est opps!	Education of the area I can now share with others	I can share info learned with clients. It makes me more of an expert. Many of the neighborhoods I was/am unfamiliar with. Love learning about appreciating n'hoods.
In depth knowledge of area that spanned all areas including real estate, economic and development activity, government			Will help guide real estate investment decision making.
The lecture given during the tour	The printed material provided on the tour		It helped me learn more about some of the Atlanta neighborhoods that I knew little about. I'll be house-hunting soon and this information is helpful for me.
The detailed history and info that Steve shared	Exploring streets & parks I had not seen before	Visiting the new brewery!

What I enjoyed most...	Enjoyed 2nd most...	Enjoyed 3rd most...	Will use knowledge gained to...
History	Socializing	City scape	Knowledge and perspective
Seeing the exact locations of the future Beltline	Park development around the future Beltline	Make-up of the neighborhoods nearby, and how Beltline access with influence future development	I'm house hunting now. Debating between shopping just in my immediate neighborhood, or some of the neighborhoods we visited. Helped to see how far along in redevelopment various areas are, price comparisons, etc.
Steve	The drive through the emerging areas	Monday Night Brewing	I am interested in buying a property in the BeltLine area. This tour gave me a lot to think about and certainly expanded my idea of what possibilities exist
Almost non-stop knowledge and information from the tour guide	I feel I'm learning things that few others get a chance to experience. Knowledge and insight.	Saw lots of different areas / neighborhoods.	Just good general knowledge for me about something I'm interested in. I'm not planning on buying real estate or starting a business etc.
The information about the Beltline transit stops.	The awesome people that participated	Ending at The Garage where we could all chat with the folks on the tour and discuss our experience and get to know one another.	I will be able to educate the importance of looking into the future and seeing the importance of proximity To the Beltline transit stops.
Understanding the impact of the BeltLine as a tool for economic development	Seeing the link between the BeltLine and the neighborhoods that are being transformed by the BeltLine		The tour helped strengthen my awareness of when, where, and why where I might be able to invest in certain neighborhoods along the BeltLine.
